

It makes absolutely no sense to stop satellite radio from broadcasting traffic information. I use this all the time and find it very valuable. The local radio stations only broadcast it occasionally and rarely when I need it.